COMPETITION LAW DISCLAIMER : TO BE READ AT THE BEGINNING OF INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF SEAFOOD IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS and its members, recognise that Industry Associations perform functions which are legitimate, and which promote the competitiveness of the Industry as a whole and consumer welfare. However, care must be exercised, to ensure that meetings of THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF SEAFOOD IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS are not used as a platform for collusion between its members. All activities of THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF SEAFOOD IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS must therefore be carefully measured against the prevailing competition laws of South Africa. In particular, under no circumstances will meetings of THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF SEAFOOD IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS be used as a vehicle to guide the independent market behaviour of its members. THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF SEAFOOD IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS will, at all time, encourage individual members to make business decisions on their own, and without consultation with their competitors.

To this end, discussions on any of the following topics must be avoided by members of

(.....):

1. How much each firm will pay for inputs or raw materials;
2. How much each firm intends selling its products for;
3. Which customers each firm will sell to/not sell to;
4. Which suppliers each firm will buy from/not buy from;
5. Which areas each firm will buy from or sell to;
6. The types of products each firm will product and sell;
7. Timing of pricing changes; and
8. How much each firm will be tendering/bidding for any future business.

This meeting is aware of the contents of this disclaimer, and all attendees agree to abide fully by its caveats.
